Predictions Vary as to When Meat Will Become Available

Cattle Reported Reaching Market

Even Hogs Are in Evidence in Greater Volume Than Year Ago

Chicago, Oct. 16 (AP)—Meat began to flow into the nation's terminal livestock markets in some volume today.

Even hogs, which were not expected in any appreciable numbers until the latter part of November, grunted and squealed their way up the chutes in larger amounts than anything in evidence a year ago.

Indianapolis led all hog markets with 16,000 head on sale, followed by Chicago with 13,000 and Sioux City, Ia., with 10,000.

The 12 principal markets of the nation totaled 55,900 hogs today, compared with 10,340 a week ago and 29,321 a year ago. Chicago traders expected no more than 10,000 over night, but there, as at most other markets, trucks rumbled all night to line up for the dawn disgorging of next month's pork chops.

Rail shipment of livestock was not expected to make much of an appearance until next week.

Not Much Meat

Upstate Supplies Are Not Affected Immediately by Ceiling End

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 16 (AP)—Lifting of price controls on meat is expected to have little effect on upstate supplies for the next week or 10 days, a survey of dealers disclosed.

Prices rose in some cities following lifting of ceilings by President Truman but supplies remained low.

At Albany, packers and butchers said it would be at least a week before there was a plentiful supply.

The situation was unchanged in Buffalo where retailers likewise awaited supplies.

Prices remained at the former levels in Rochester because, dealers said, there was no meat to change prices. A price advance was anticipated with increased supplies.

Hurley 'Blacks Out' When Fuses Blow

The electric circuit feeding the Hurley avenue-Hurley village area developed trouble Tuesday evening causing lights to be out in that area from about 5:45 until 7:30, when service was restored by Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation emergency crews.

The time of the interruption varied in the area and service from Kingston to beyond Hurley was affected at intervals. The interruption was attributed to line trouble caused by fuses blowing.

The area beyond Hurley to Napanoch was not affected since that area is fed back by current from High Falls.

Byrnes Will Give Broadcast Report On Paris Parley

Secretary of State Leaves for U. S. via Plane; Says Work Was Fruitful

Paris, Oct. 16 (AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes, taking off for the United States this afternoon, announced he would make a broadcast report Friday night on the 21-nation Paris Peace Conference.

Byrnes and his wife left Orly Field in President Truman's plane, "The Sacred Cow," at 3:57 p. m. (9:57 a. m. E.S.T.), after a news conference in which he expressed confidence that Yugoslavia eventually would sign the peace treaty with Italy.

The secretary said he thought that on consideration Yugoslav leaders would realize that no one power could make the peace, and would bow to the opinions of the other 20 Allied nations.

Giving correspondents his views on the 21-nation peace conference which came to an end yesterday with Yugoslav delegates boycotting the final session, Byrnes said he felt the 11-week-old parley had accomplished much important work in registering world opinion on peace treaty issues.

Asked how he would describe current Russian-American relations, Byrnes said he would put that in his talk Friday night.

Byrnes, Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and the others on the four-power Foreign Ministers' Council—Georges Bidault, French President and Foreign Minister, and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin of Britain—are to meet in New York City Nov. 4 for final action on the satellite treaties and preliminary work on the German pact.

Will Publish Encyclical

Rome, Oct. 16 (AP)—Pope Pius is expected soon to publish an encyclical on the situation of the Catholic church in Yugoslavia.

Rome press reports said today. No confirmation could be obtained at the Vatican. Prelates pointed out that encyclicals are prepared in the greatest secrecy and their appearance rarely pre-announced.

Arrives by Plane

Trieste, Oct. 16 (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower arrived here by plane today on an inspection tour of American forces in the Allied occupied Venezia-Giulia region.

Eisenhower was accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, his son and aide, Capt. John Eisenhower, and staff officers.

The governor on an upstate election campaign tour, came here from Rochester where he told 4,000 persons at a Republican rally last night that his administration had accumulated a $517,000,000 surplus despite "irresponsible opposition" and was ready to spend it for long-needed war-related projects.

The opening of Mohawk College, Deway said in a prepared address, "is another tangible reminder that the mightiest of all

Plan Drawn To Junk All Wage Laws

O.P.A. and Agriculture Department Might Kill Ceilings on All Foods

Will Lift Ban

Mexican Cattle Will Be Allowed to Come to U.S. Pens

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—The government reportedly drafted an order today to speed the junking of wage controls.

Simultaneously, O.P.A. and the Agriculture Department "seriously considered" wiping out price ceilings on all food items still under control.

Thus on both the price and wage fronts quick action appeared to be shaping up in line with the swifter decontrol tempo signalled by President Truman when he scrapped all federal restraints on meat.

These other developments rounded out the picture: Senators studying the implications of Mr. Truman's action on meat foresaw an early end to almost all price controls, except those over rent, either by voluntary government action or by legislation.

The Republican party contended that the junking of the meat problem by the Democrats is a good reason for a C.O.P. Congress.

While livestock prices jumped in the wake of decontrol, Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson predicted there will be more meat in butcher shops "in about 10 days." But he said the shortage will last through 1946.

Will Lift Quarantine

Government officials told a reporter privately that the United States will lift its quarantine Friday against the importation of Mexican cattle.

Word that the White House may act by week's end to speed removal of wage curbs came from a member of the government's reconversion advisory board, which conferred yesterday with Mr. Truman on the wage-price situation.

The order reportedly in the works is understood to outline the pattern the government will follow in stripping away pay controls. It probably will clarify, too, the status of the Wage Stabilization Board, whose two industry members already have submitted resignations to Mr. Truman.

Following the Reconversion Board's session with Mr. Truman, Elen Ayers, a White House press secretary, told reporters the panel had recommended for the second time that all wage and price controls be scrapped "as soon as this is compatible with economic security of the nation."

On the subject of food prices, an O.P.A. official said he expects a decision soon whether foods still under ceilings should be kept there, in view of the removal of meat controls.

Decontrol in this field would cover such items as bread, coffee, cereals, flour, oranges and bananas, canned tomatoes and canned fish.

While price officials debated what to do on this, Senator Russell (D., Ga.) told a reporter he has no doubt that several bills will be introduced early in the new Congress to abolish O.P.A.

Petroleum Industries Meeting

Eighty-five service men and fuel oil dealers of Ulster county were in attendance at the annual dinner-meeting of the Ulster County Petroleum Industries Committee held Tuesday evening at the Governor Clinton Hotel. Colonel Edward Gray of New York city, representative of the Petroleum Industries Committee of New York state was the principal speaker. Shown above are, standing left to right, Ted Schunk, committee member, Colonel Gray, and Ben Langley. Sitting, in the same order, are Senator Arthur H. Wicks, Raymond Garraghan, Chairman of the Ulster county committee and Assemblyman John F. Wadlin.

Senator Wicks, Wadlin Ask More Interest in Legislation

Colonel Edward Gray, representative of the New York State Petroleum Industries Committee, reviewed the work of the committee in seeking legislation, which would be both beneficial to the motorists and the industry, at the annual meeting of the Ulster County Petroleum Industries Committee held Tuesday evening at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

In attendance were 85 service men and fuel oil dealers from Ulster county. Raymond Garraghan was the chairman of the dinner-meeting.

Senator Arthur H. Wicks and Assemblyman John F. Wadlin, guests of the committee, also spoke. The local representatives exhorted the petroleum dealers to take a greater active interest not only in legislation affecting their industry but in all legislation, which affects the people of the state and nation. In this connection it was necessary, they declared, that the best fitted men for political offices be placed on the job. In taking a greater interest in government, they said, they were fulfilling their duty as citizens, the speakers asserted.

Mayor William F. Edelmuth extended a welcome to the group.

Gives Demonstration

Charles F. Vogel, a representative of the New York State Fire Underwriters, gave a demonstration of the power of gasoline.

The Ulster County Committee sent a letter of thanks to Superintendent of the fire department.

Von Ribbentrop Is First of Nazis to Dron Through Trap, Seyss-Inquart Is Last; Will Probe Suicide; No Arrests Made

Nuernberg, Oct. 16 (AP)—Hermann Goering cheated the hangman with a capsule of cyanide last night but 10 other ringleaders of the punctured Nazi Reich died at the end of a rope in the dark hours before dawn today in payment for their crimes against the world.

Goering, pudgy No. 2 man of a Fascist regime intended by Adolf Hitler to last 1,000 years, twitched out his life in a prison cell only a few hours before his condemned henchmen plunged through the banging traps of two gallows in a grimy building 35 yards away.

By his manner of dying, Goering—flamboyant to the last—only took the last spotlight away from his colleagues but created a breath-taking mystery which had Army intelligence officers laboring in an effort to determine how he got, concealed and took the poison.

The 10 who died on the gallows—as directed by the international military tribunal which convicted them two weeks ago of war crimes, crimes against the peace and crimes against humanity—went to their deaths without collapsing and mouthing "God save Germany" final declarations.

Joachim von Ribbentrop, Hitler's foreign minister, who replaced Goering as the first man to climb the 13 steps to doom, dropped through the trap at 1:14 a. m. (7:14 p. m. Tuesday E.S.T.). An hour and 43 minutes later, when Arthur Seyss-Inquart, Nazi gauleiter of the Netherlands, was pronounced dead, it was all over.

Those who died in between with Master Sergeant John C. Wood of the U. S. Army—who has presided at 233 executions—springing the trap in some cases, were: Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, Ernst Kaltenbrunner, head of the Nazi security police; Alfred Rosenberg, Nazi party philosopher; Hans Frank, Governor General of Poland; Wilhelm Frick, "protector" of Bohemia and Moravia; Julius Streicher, the Jew baiter; Fritz Sauckel, the slave labor boss, and Col. Gen. Alfred Jodl.

Correspondents who witnessed the executions said they did not see any coffins but could hear them being carried out.

Case Is Settled

Green Street Woman Pays $100 for Over-Ceiling Prices Charged

Mrs. Florence Sherwood, 53 Green street, made a $100 adjustment with the United States Treasury yesterday when her attorney, Charles Gaffney, appeared before the Kingston Price Control Panel in the final hearing in a widely publicized nylon stocking case that began on May 21.

Mrs. Sherwood did not appear in person but Mr. Gaffney signed a statement, as her attorney, admitting that Mrs. Sherwood had sold nylon stockings over O.P.A. price ceilings. Mr. Gaffney was prepared to make a cash settlement but members of the Panel directed him to make out a certified check payable to the United States Treasury.

Settlement of the nylon case was perhaps the final major action by the Price Control Board since its future appears uncertain at the present time.

The Price Control Panel launched its investigation into the sale of alleged "black market" nylons at its May 21 meeting. Four persons allegedly involved in the sale of nylons over ceiling prices were questioned by the Panel.

At her first hearing Mrs. Sherwood was extremely vague in her testimony and she told the Panel members she could not recall the exact number of nylons she had purchased, where she had purchased them.

After the 10 had been hanged, Goering's corpse was brought into the execution chamber for symbolic execution of the tribunal's sentence.

Kingsbury, Smith, representing the combined American press and one of only eight correspondents permitted to enter the brightly lighted gymnasium in the jail yard where the gallows stood, said Seyss-Inquart's body still was dangling from the noose when officers ordered the blanket covering Goering's body removed.

The former Reichsmarshal and Luftwaffe commander lay on a stretcher attired in black pajamas and a blue shirt open to expose his chest. Smith said his face bore an agonized expression and that his hair was rumpled. Among the witnesses was Dr. Wilhelm

Says Mayor and Board Refused to Act as Law Requires

An order to show cause why William T. Roedell should not be appointed a police lieutenant on the Kingston police force was signed today by Supreme Court Justice Francis Bergen. The order is returnable on October 18 at 10 o'clock.

The order was granted on application of Charles H. Gaffney, counsel for William T. Roedell, who is a sergeant of police at the present time, and a veteran of World War I. Sergeant Roedell, by reason of being a veteran, is first on the eligible list which was promulgated on September 9.

Following an examination held on July 10 for the purpose of securing an eligible list from which to make an appointment to the position of lieutenant, a list of three eligible men was made up. On that list was William J. Leonard, William T. Roedell, and Ray Van Buren.

Ray Van Buren, all members of the police department. Under the civil service rights of veterans the names of both William T. Roedell and Raymond Van Buren were eligible to be moved to the top of the list, they both being veterans.

First on List

Under the veterans' preferential rights the name of Sergeant Roedell became first on the list with Van Buren and Leonard following in that order.

On September 9, the eligible list was certified by the State Civil Service Board to the Municipal Civil Service Board and following that act, when no appointment was made, the present action was commenced to compel the City Administration to make an appointment.

Order Sent to Mayor

The application for an order to show cause was directed to Mayor William F. Edelmuth as president of the Board of Police Commissioners, William Singer, E. Frank Flanagan, Stephen D. Hiltbrant and Willis R. Locke, as members of the Board of Police Commissioners and to Leonard Miller as secretary and George Dempsey and Rodock M. Birch as members of the Board of Civil Service.

It was served on Mayor Edelmuth at 1:30 o'clock today.

Refusal Cited

In his petition to the court Mr. Roedell charges that the city administration has refused to act and that under the State Civil Service law, 20 days after an eligible list has been promulgated, petitioner has the right to compel action under the law to require a permanent appointment to be made.

The petition alleges that William J. Leonard is holding the position under a temporary appointment made on May 1, 1946, before the examination was held to secure an eligible list and that

Asks Reduction

Soviet Defense Minister Would Cut Defense Budget for Year

Moscow, Oct. 16 (AP)—Soviet Finance Minister A. G. Zverev recommended to the Supreme Soviet (Parliament) last night a reduction of 58,800,000,000 rubles in Russia's defense budget for the next fiscal year.

This would be about $11,095,000,000 at the official exchange rate of 53 rubles to the dollar.

Zverev, at a joint session of the body, proposed that 72,000,000,000 rubles be spent for defense in the new fiscal year.

The finance minister did not recommend, however, that Russia spend 5,000,000,000 rubles to "develop science for the further growth of the economic and military might of the Soviet Union."

Last year's expenditure for this item was 2,000,000,000 rubles.

Lifeboat men said the cruiser's screw had damaged the stern during attempts to free the boat.

The owner obtained a rowboat to remove equipment during the night, the coast guard said, but he and three other occupants refused to abandon the boat, which was in three feet of water at high tide. Another attempt was to be made to float the craft this evening, the coast guard said, with the aid of a picket boat.

Good Taste Today

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

THE PROBLEM OF THE UNINVITED GUEST

Lack of consideration to an almost unbelievable degree is described in the following letter: "There is a woman friend who comes constantly to my house with her two children just at evening mealtime. Her husband travels a good part of the time and it looks as though she made the rounds of her friends. I simply have to discourage her from coming without being expected. Up to now I have thought it rude not to ask her to stay. When there wasn't enough of what I had planned to go around, I made the children eggs or opened a can of soup and somehow we managed. It is very upsetting and my husband is getting tired of the frequency of her mealtime visits and his own sometimes cut-down portions. We can't afford to stock a lot of extra supplies. How can I discourage this habit and yet keep her friendship? If the two can't be managed, then tell me how to keep her away at mealtime."

Explain frankly the next time she comes that you are sorry you cannot ask them to stay for supper. If she asks, "Why?" repeat, "Because I really can't." In other words, it is best not to explain, because this is likely to make her try to overcome your excuse. To be inhumanly polite in a miserable situation, but I can think of no other solution since she is evidently a person of blunt sensibilities. Having to turn her out repeatedly undoubtedly will hurt your friendship, unless occasionally you can invite her to have a meal with you on a definite day, just as you invite all of your other friends to do.

Why Not Edyth?

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it necessary to spell a child's name the way everyone else spells it? I'd like to spell my little girl's name "Edyth" instead of "Edith."

Answer: Parents can spell their child's name any way they choose.

Do you know how to dispose of fruit pits at a dinner? The answer is found in Post's "Table Rules of Importance," obtainable for a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to her in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Ives Carries His Fight Into Two Upstate Counties

Says Communists Hope for Capital Confusion, Hence They Back Democrats

En Route with Ives, Oct. 16 (AP)—Irving M. Ives, Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate today carried his fight against government controls and against Communists into heavily Republican rural Livingston and Steuben counties.

He scheduled brief addresses in Dansville and Hornell en route to address a rally at Corning tonight.

Ives declared last night at a rally in Rochester for Republican state candidates the Communist party was supporting Democratic nominees 100 per cent in the hope that the "confused" situation in Washington would be heightened.

"Washington is so confused that actually our whole economy is threatened with chaos," he asserted.

Earlier, in a statewide broadcast, the retiring assembly majority leader termed food shortages the "result of the Democratic party's ceaseless tinkering with relentless natural laws which govern the production of food."

"Our earnest need is to increase food production, not curtail it by regulations," he asserted. "The fact is, if all Americans were to eat as well as they should, our agriculture could not begin to meet the demand."

The lifting of meat controls, he said, was an act of "desperation" and of "political expediency" by President Truman, "because his planners had fallen down on a job of feeding America."

"These planners of a managed economy have no faith in the American people," he said. The group "still holds to its belief that government must run the lives of people."

House Committee Calls for Further Data on Money

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—The House Campaign Expenditures Committee called today for additional data from American Action, Inc., described as a potential rival to the C.I.O.-P.A.C.

Chairman Priest (D-Tenn.) of the House group said the committee particularly wants more detail about American Action's backers and the names of congressional candidates it supports or opposes.

Some of the information was supplied at a special hearing last night by Edward A. Hayes, national chairman of the Chicago organization. Hayes promised to submit a more complete report in writing after a meeting today in Chicago.

Hayes, a former national commander of the American Legion, said, American Action was established this year to help elect congressmen "whose records leave no doubt of their unalterable opposition of Communistic and kindred doctrines."

Generally speaking, he added, the group probably will support the type of candidates opposed by the C.I.O.-Political Action Committee, and visa versa.

Hayes testified that the organization operates on a "relatively small scale at present but plans to expand to every state. He listed contributions thus far at about $100,000 and expenditures at $86,000.

He termed "absolutely untrue" reports that American Action hopes to spend $1,000,000 to help defeat 187 congressmen. Rep. Patman (D-Texas) made such an assertion in a statement Sunday.

While awaiting further word from Hayes, the House planned to question officials of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen at a session this afternoon (2:30 E.S.T.).

Girl Is Branded

Fort Scott, Kas., Oct. 16 (AP)—Sixteen-year-old Ruth Smock was recovering today from shock from a branding on the thighs by a chloroform-using assailant who also cut her with a knife on the legs, neck and face. The high school girl told Police Chief Richard Musgrove that a man entered the apartment Monday night, seized her and held a bottle of chloroform under her nose until she lost consciousness. Musgrove said the branding had been done with a flat iron. A physician said the girl, whose home is in Richards, Mo., but attends school here, had not been raped.

Goering Goes Out With Cyanide

Hoegner, Minister President of Bavaria.

When the last body had been cut down, Col. B. C. Andrus, prison commandant, emerged with the first news to the world that Goering had taken his own life.

"Goering was not hanged," Andrus announced. "He committed suicide at 10:45 p. m. (4:15 p. m. E.S.T. Tuesday) last night by taking cyanide of potassium."

"He was discovered at once by the sentinel who watched and heard him make an odd noise and twitch. The sentinel called the doctor and chaplain who were in the corridor and who found him dying."

There were pieces of glass in his mouth and an odor of cyanide of potassium on his breath.

"Goering's hands, which had been observed to go to his mouth, were not observed to go to his mouth. An investigation is now going on to learn how he could conceal the poison when he was subject to daily and rigorous searches, both of his clothes and his person. The cyanide was contained in a small case similar to those found before on other Nazis and like the one found on him a year ago last May at Mordorff prison. At that time it was hidden in a can of Nescafe."

Open Envelope Found
French Correspondent Louis de Roche said in his account that an opened envelope was found on Goering's corpse. It contained three messages written in pencil.

Peterson's Ointment brings prompt, joyful relief from itching. Money back if not delighted.

one of which was addressed to Col. Andrus.

The poison Goering took was contained in a vial concealed inside a copper tube made of an old cartridge.

The executions were carried out with machine-like precision, while one man hung from one gallows, his body concealed inside the structure of the scaffold—another man was brought in.

Every one of the 10 men approached death bravely once he entered the room and saw the grim apparatus of the hangmen. Some quailed and approached hysteria before they entered. Sauckel refused to dress at first and screamed at the top of his voice when soldiers handcuffed him.

Streicher Snarls
The only one to create a scene at the scaffold was Streicher who defiantly shouted his last "Heil Hitler" and then snarled at an American officer. The Bolsheviks will hang you one day."

After his body dropped through the trap the correspondent—witnesses clearly heard a groan from the interior of the scaffold.

The only one of the 10 who made no last minute statement was Rosenberg. Asked if he desired to make any final declaration, Rosenberg uttered only the money-yielding: "No." Then he died.

Ribbentrop, the man who engineered the Nazi-Russian pact which touched off World War II, uttered his final words in distinct, unflinching German.

"God save Germany," he said. "My last wish is that Germany realize its entity and that an understanding be reached between the east and the west. I wish peace to the world."

Keitel entered the chamber six minutes later and mounted the scaffold as though he were climbing a stand to review his troops. He peered over the crowd with iron-jawed Prussian hauteur. Called upon for his last words he said:

"I call on God Almighty to have mercy on the German people. More than two million German soldiers went to their deaths for the fatherland before me. I follow now my sons." (He lost two sons in the war.)

"All for Germany" Then he raised his voice and shouted: "All for Germany."

Then, with the bodies of Ribbentrop and Keitel dangling in death, an American and a Russian doctor, carrying stethoscopes, disappeared beneath the one curtained side of the first scaffold and emerged very shortly afterward to speak to the American colonel.

The colonel turned, snapped to attention, and informed the witnesses.

"The man (Ribbentrop) is dead."

The executioner, a sergeant, climbed up the gallows and cut the rope with a large, command-type knife, as other soldiers lowered the body to a stretcher and quickly carried it behind a curtain at the rear of the room.

Witnesses described the last moment of the other men as follows:

Kaltenbrunner, dueling scars on his cheeks shining blood red in the glaring light declared: "I have loved my German people and my fatherland with a warm heart. I have done my duty by the laws of my people and I am sorry my people were led this time by men who were not soldiers and that I had no knowledge."

Meaning: "Germany, good luck." Frank, who entered with a smile on his face, whispered his last words: "I am thankful for the kind treatment during my captivity and I ask God to accept me with mercy."

Wore Gaudy Sports Jacket
Frick, inconspicuously attired in a gaudy sports jacket, stubbed on the last of the 13 steps up the gallows, but recovered. His final words were: "Long live eternal Germany."

Sauckel, who was reported by one correspondent to have shouted: "I pay my respects to American soldiers and officers but not to American Jews" in his first fright before reaching the execution chamber, went to his death bravely, crying at the end: "May God protect Germany and my family."

Jodl, his face flushed and his eyes red, paid his final bill with the words: "I salute you, my Germany."

Seyss-Inquart, whose glasses were removed as the executioner slipped the noose over his head, said, quietly: "I hope that this execution is the last act of the tragedy of the Second World War and that a lesson will be learned so that peace and understanding will be realized among the nations. I believe in Germany."

All of the men were tied hand and foot as they made their last drop and each one was escorted to the gallows by a soldier at each elbow.

Two Vans Speed Out
Nuenberg, Oct. 16 (AP)—Two sealed vans sped out of Nuenberg prison under armed escort at 5:30 a. m. today carrying the bodies of suicide Hermann Goering and his ten hanged satellites.

Where the bodies were kept will remain a secret, Captain Samuel Binder of the Security Police detail declared emphatically.

They went to nameless graves somewhere, and it is a good guess part of the journey was by plane. The trucks were protected by two jeeps filled with machine guns.

Also in the parade was a long black automobile and sitting in it was a brigadier general.

The convoy left at breathtaking speed and doubled back and forth over Nuenberg until finally heading for Futh, where they were two army airfields. Both fields were dark and none of the few attendants seemed to know anything unusual was going on.

The convoy turned toward Emlinger, where there is another army airfield. Military police threw up road blocks throughout the area and it was impossible to trail them further.

The trip lasted two hours apart. An officer included in the party was back in Nuenberg at 7:30 a. m.

Board Is Appointed
Nuenberg, Oct. 16 (AP)—A three-man board was appointed today to investigate the suicide of Hermann Goering for the Allied Control Council.

A "disinterested" officer from the United States Army was named chairman of the board, Col. Richard McConnell, public relations officer announced.

McConnell said the identity of all three has not been divulged. At this time, he added, "no arrests have been made and none are presently contemplated."

Asked if this included Emma Goering, who lived with her husband last week, McConnell simply repeated his statement.

C.A.B. Calls Safety Meeting for Airlines
Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—Deeply concerned over the mounting number of air accidents, the Civil Aeronautics Board today summoned the men who own and fly commercial planes to a safety conference.

Representatives of the Air Transport Association, the Airline Pilots Association and the Civil Aeronautics Administration will meet here Friday.

A C.A.B. official said the airlines' and pilots' spokesmen will be asked to state their problems frankly and informally at a closed meeting. From this and other information, he added, the government hopes to be able to spell out future safety regulations.

Currently, the C.A.B. official said, airlines are confronted with two principal safety problems:

1. The use of aircraft far beyond the war, surged far ahead of available commercial facilities.

2. Personnel problems have definitely not been solved, particularly with regard to maintenance.

By commercial facilities, the official said he meant navigational aids, landing devices and the like.

Describing the personnel problem as another "hangover" from the war, the official said that while the fighting was going on a big factor was "calculated risk, or a determination of whether the mission was worth the risk involved."

"Now this has to be reversed completely," he asserted. "You can't calculate risk with human lives."

To Sing at V. F. W. Ball

The Four Yostmen will sing at the annual ball of Joyce-Schrick Post, 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in the municipal auditorium on Friday night, October 25. This act has appeared in the leading theatres, hotels and night clubs throughout the country and undoubtedly established something of a record at Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe in New York city when it was held over for four years. The Four Yostmen are also featured on Sonora records. This quartet presents a digamings have met with instantaneous success with the Four Yostmen being recognized as one of the finest groups of their type in the field of entertainment.

Ingraham Warns Diphtheria Is Rising
Albany, N. Y., Oct. 16 (AP)—Incidence of diphtheria in upstate New York is not only at its highest level in 12 years but is "likely" to increase, the State Health Department said today.

A total of 281 cases have been reported during the nine-month January-September period, the department disclosed, with May's 56 cases the highest for any single month.

Dr. Hollis S. Ingraham (formerly in charge of the Kingston district office), director of the Division of Communicable Diseases, predicting that the number of cases "appears likely to increase" during the next few months, said all health officers have been urged to make "every effort" to secure immunization of as many infants as possible while good weather still prevails.

3,000 Bombers Are In Readiness for Use by Air Forces
Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—The United States has more super-size bombers today than when the war ended.

The Army Air Forces, striving to keep its long-range striking arm in readiness even though demobilization has made deep incursions into the force, today significantly more than 3,000 "very heavy bombardment" type aircraft. This number compares with 2,865 on hand when hostilities ended in August 1945.

With the exception of two experimental airplanes—the B-36 and the B-35 "Flying Wing"—all the present force of V.H.B.s are B-29s or B-29 modifications.

A.A.F. officials emphasize, however, that not all the 3,000-plus planes make up the V.H.B. operating force. Only part of the total actually are being flown; the remainder constitute reserves or spare aircraft. Deliveries of B-29 types still are being made to the A.A.F., although in minor numbers.

R.A.F. Pilot Hangs For the Slaying of London Actress
London, Oct. 16 (AP)—Neville George Cleverly Heath, handsome young former R.A.F. pilot, was hanged at grim Pentonville prison today for the sadistic murder of movie extra Margery Gardner.

A crowd of approximately 500 men, women and children milled about outside the prison walls, waiting for the posting of the curt notice announcing that the curly-haired aviator had paid with his life for a crime which shocked all Britain.

Mrs. Gardner's body, nude with ankles bound, was found in Heath's London hotel room last June 21. She had been lashed 17 times across the breasts and back, there were teeth marks on the body and she had been severely mutilated with a poker-like instrument.

Heath also was charged with the sadistic slaying of pretty Doreen Marshall, 21, at Bourne-mouth, swank seaside resort, less than two weeks later.

Mrs. Goering Breaks Down
New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—Emma Goering broke down and sobbed today when she was told how her husband, Hermann Goering, cheated the gallows by swallowing poison. Ed Haaker of NBC said in a Nuenberg broadcast. Haaker said Mrs. Goering denied she had smuggled the deadly capsule to her husband during her last visit to the prison.

By commercial facilities, the official said he meant navigational aids, landing devices and the like.

Describing the personnel problem as another "hangover" from the war, the official said that while the fighting was going on a big factor was "calculated risk, or a determination of whether the mission was worth the risk involved."

"Now this has to be reversed completely," he asserted. "You can't calculate risk with human lives."

X-rays Are Taken Of 1,200 Chests in Ulster Area Drive

One of the largest groups of Ulster county residents to take advantage of the free X-ray program offered by the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association was X-rayed during the past week. About 1,200 individual adults were X-rayed during the three days.

At Saugerties High School 103 seniors, teachers and bus drivers were done. In Kingston, 201 food handlers, beauticians, and barbers were X-rayed at the Health Center of the Kingston Board of Health at 27 East O'Reilly street.

About 108 persons of Milton and Marlborough joined the 50 seniors and teachers of the Marlborough High School in this project. At Walkill High School 71 persons were X-rayed.

The committee sponsoring the town of Shandaken survey was greatly rewarded in its efforts when 650 adults coming from all parts of the town had a picture of their chests made.

Powers X-ray Products, Inc., of Glen Cove, N. Y., took the pictures at these various points. After they are developed and read by specialists, reports will be mailed out from the health office, 74 John street, to those individuals X-rayed.

This entire program was made possible by the health association through the sale of Christmas Seals.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By ED CREAUGH
(For Hal Boyle)

London, Oct. 16 (AP)—The visit of Frenchman who once remarked that England was populated entirely by madmen may have been exaggerating somewhat, but it's true that a day's stroll around London will turn up more nuts than you could find in a pre-war fruitcake.

No insult is intended and most Englishmen would agree readily that the percentage of screwballs in the population is high by any standard. Some would go so far as to agree with the Frenchman—and blame it on the climate. England takes pride in her eccentrics.

They are of all classes. You find them dining in the House of Lords, running from platforms in Hyde Park, wearing out the upholstery of club chairs, reading aloud by the open air bookstalls in Charing Cross road, feeding the pigeons in Trafalgar Square.

You find them, of course, in every great city—but not so many of them. Maybe it is the damp, foggy climate that turns men's minds inward upon themselves. More likely it is the English tolerance of mild nuttiness. Whatever it is, it has been going on for a long time.

There was Samuel Johnson, who liked to drop in for a cup of tea and leave with 27 under his belt. The two iron posts that he always went out of his way to touch—it spoiled his day if he didn't touch them—were still standing in Red Lion Court.

There was the Earl of Bridgewater, who flourished in the days after Waterloo. He liked dogs, around his dining room table were 12 armchairs and in each, during dinner, sat a pet pooch with a napkin around its neck. The earl considered this quite natural.

He Willed His Body
There was the great Jeremy Bentham who willed his body, in a mahogany case, to a school of anatomy for exhibition purposes.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

O.P.A. Cake
Denver, Oct. 16 (AP)—Mona Jean Kolar, 11 wrote the regional O.P.A. office in Denver that she was getting so hungry for chocolate cake she dreamed about it every night.

Would the O.P.A. please send "at least one sugar stamp" so her mother could bake a cake, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kolar Jr., of Erie, Colo., asked. Rationing officials replied that they couldn't send a stamp, but Elmer C. Clark, district price ex-ecution, mailed Mona a big chocolate cake.

Light Meat
Chicago, Oct. 16 (AP)—Butcher James V. Fiduccia was in license court on a charge of giving a customer short weight on hard-to-get meat.

"She was a millionaire, judge, and I thought she could afford it," Fiduccia told Judge Samuel Heller. "Must be a lot of millionaires in your neighborhood," Judge Heller commented in fining Fiduccia $200 and costs and reminding him he had been convicted three times on short-weight charges since 1941.

Civil Service Asks Special Session To Enact Increases

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 16 (AP)—The State Civil Service Employees Association, which claims a membership of 30,000 asks that Governor Dewey summon a special session of the Legislature next month to enact a 25 per cent cost-of-living pay rise for state employees.

The request was embodied in a resolution adopted yesterday at the annual meeting of the association.

The delegates approved a constitutional amendment opening membership to Civil Service employees of cities and counties. Their number was estimated at 200,000.

Frank L. Tolman of the State Education Department was re-elected president.

Two Girls Rob Man In Laundry of $300

Greenwich, Conn., Oct. 16 (AP)—Two teen-age girls, one brandishing a revolver and the other a knife, bound and gagged a Chinese in his laundry here last night and robbed him of nearly $300.

Police Chief John M. Gleason said the laundryman, Wah Jim Eng, reported that the girls entered his laundry about 9:30 p. m. forced him into a back room and rifled his pockets after he was tied hand and foot and a loose gag stuffed in his mouth. Other money was taken from boxes in the room, he said.

The Chinese's plight was discovered by Patrolman Joe Knopka, whose suspicions were aroused when he found the door open and the laundry in darkness when he was making his rounds.

Russians Refuse To Share Copy, Say Treatment Unfair

Nuernberg, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Russian correspondents "walked out" of the Allied newspaper pool on the Nuernberg executions today, refusing to share their copy with other nations.

The Russian representatives of Tass and Pravda asserted that they had been unfairly treated but declined to explain why.

A Soviet officer who asked to be anonymous said their stories would sharply criticize officials responsible for the suicide of Hermann Goering.

The Soviet writers earlier had agreed to join the four power news pool and gave no indication that they did not intend to keep their bargain until hours after the executions actually took place.

Both American public relations officers connected with the execution disclaimed any knowledge that the Russian correspondents had been treated unfairly.

Potters, Barnes Win 'Y' Games; Middletown-N.F.A. Meet Friday

Both Clubs Pace League Standings With 2 Triumphs

McArdle, Swamp Lilies Collects 21 Points as Team Loses; Cooper Dislocates Elbow

The Potter Brothers quintet and the Barnes Five lead the Y.M.C.A. Basketball League this morning after Tuesday's big triple-header on the "Y" boards. Potters scored win number two in a row with a 33 to 23 decision over the Hustlers while the Barnes team crushed the V.F.W. cagers 30 to 10.

Cooper Is Injured
One major injury marred last night's games when "Chappie" Cooper, well-known sports figure, dislocated his left elbow in the first minute of play during the Barnes-Hustler contest. Cooper was taken to the Kingston Hospital for treatment.

In the third game Tuesday night the Marines opened their season successfully with a 36 to 31 victory over the Swamp Lilies.

Next Game Thursday
One more league contest is scheduled for the "Y" boards Thursday night when the Shamrocks and Madden's Aces tangle at the 7 o'clock bell.

Coach Zerk, who was the big gun for Potter Brothers again last night as he tossed in seven fields for a pace-setting total of 14 points. Jess Shultis collected six Albany amassed four for the V.F.W. squad. Potters had a 12 to 3 lead at halftime.

Leading 17 to 7 at the end of the first two periods of play, the Barnes Five kept moving at about the same pace in the final two sessions to trip the Hustlers in good fashion. Baltz found the range for 10 points to lead the winners while Lowe pushed in nine for the losers.

McArdle Scores 21
Idle last week, the Marines got off to a good start last night in their victory over the Swamp Lilies. Amato was the big gun in the triumph as he collected 14 points on seven field throws. McArdle nearly proved to be a one-man show for the losers as he collected 21 markers.

Valley Boxing Fans Flocking For Thursday's Fight Tickets

Advance Sale Indicates Another Sellout Crowd, Dr. Murray Greene Reports Today

Since the announcement of the complete B'nai B'rith boxing card, featuring Buddy Matthews against Ike Jenkins, with an array of promising ring attractions supporting the main go, orders for ringside seats presage a crowd at the municipal auditorium Thursday night.

Dr. Murray Greene, chairman of ticket sales, told a reporter, "I guess the fans agree the show looks like one with plenty of fireworks. Ringside seats are going fast."

Because of an injury of Tony Burrono, the full card was not announced until yesterday. When verification was given that Buddy Matthews would replace the Schenectady writerweight as Ike Jenkins' opponent, ticket sales began to soar.

Matthews, hard-punching New York city welterweight, previous to losing an unpopular decision to Burrono, knocked out Tony Genovese, New England champion of Boston, Mass., in three rounds. Jenkins, a New Yorker won two local victories via the technical knockout route, one over Mike Sully of Schenectady and the other over Paul Hawks, durable Beacon Bomber.

Phone calls for reserved seats indicate that the fight crowd tomorrow night will be made up of fans from all along the Hudson valley.

Followers of Carmine Virgilio have placed sizeable orders for tickets, showing that the Poughkeepsie bantamweight's admirers will be at the ringside to see their "uncrowned champion" square off against Juan Lindes, Puerto Rican firebrand from New York city.

Newburghers will be in attendance, too. Two scrappers from the mid-Hudson city are on the bill—Cliff Smith, who holds a knockout over Carl Barney, and Jimmy Taylor, a rough and ready light-heavy.

Smith is matched with Fred Tippman, a rugged New York middleweight, and Taylor is paired with Paul Alegro, Albany light-heavy.

Al Jones of Catskill will draw his usual following to see how he stands up under the fire of Tom Hood, Albany lightweight. Jones made his debut here on October 3 by decisioning Frank Maucci of Schenectady.

Tom Davis of Kingston, former champion of the world, will appear when "Sugar" Ray will meet Tom Smernick of Johnstown in one of the three rounders.

Tommy Baker, the Gloversville boy who decisioned Percy Wilson of New York, and is angling for a shot at Roosevelt Flagg of Albany will box Dave Peters in one of the fives.

There are seven bouts on the bill, the first of which is slated to start at 9 o'clock.

Local Gridders Engage Strong Newburgh Club in Afternoon Tilt at Uptown Stadium

The Kingston A.A. football team is scheduled for a Hudson Valley League game with Newburgh Sunday afternoon at the municipal stadium. Starting time is 2 o'clock.

Manager Larry Glennon in announcing a practice for Thursday at 8 p.m. in the state armory said his gridders would try to overshadow last Sunday's defeat at Middletown by chalking up a win over the Hill City molesters.

Hudson Valley League
The Kingston Trailways was the only local team in the Hudson Valley League to emerge from week-end matches with better than 500 results. While the Trailways were winning two from the Newburgh Paladins, Jones Dairy Team 1 and Team 2 and the V.F.W. Klecks were dropping two out of three decisions to other league opponents.

Phil Masters paced the Trailways to victory when he blasted out a 237 single and 574 aggregate. John MacLellan, Tony LaRocca and John Swint banged 555, 555 and 550 for the winners. Pat Tarnio's 581 three-timer was high for Newburgh. Leoce of the Hill City Klecks fashioned himself a high 225 single for his team.

Had Spaulding and George "Curly" Flemings were in top form for Jones Dairy Team 2 over the week-end when they whipped out sizzling triples of 660 and 650 respectively but the club still dropped two games to the Poughkeepsie P.V.F.C. squad. Flemings, opening with 233, came back with a helty 257 and wound up with a mediocre 160 for his 650. Spaulding hit 223, 213 and 224 for his series. Ken Williams 580 and Schrauw's 522 completed the dairymen's attack. Duo's 594 paced Poughkeepsie.

In another match the Middletown Eagles tripped Jones Dairy Team 1 in two out of three games. Dembeck of Middletown slammed 570 while Johnny Ferraro's 571 topped the local team. Harold Broskie hit 209 and John Schatzel rolled 203 for the dairymen.

The Newburgh Taxi Center Kleckers whipped the Kingston Van Kleck squad in two games. E. Gordon smashed a 581 triple for Newburgh while George "Stogie" Robinson clipped 579 for the defending champs.

Better Bowling
By BILLY SIXTY

A number of fundamentals of bowling have been enumerated and it is timely now to review them. The things to do in getting into the game are:

- 1-Ball must be properly fitted to the hand.
- 2-Hold the ball with the full weight resting in the palm of the left hand.
- 3-Insert finger (or fingers) into holes so that the thumb points forward (toward pins) with hand bent comfortably so that tips are below the ball and ball rests against palm of hand, not in the palm entirely.
- 4-Adopt stance either erect or with shoulders drooped, whichever is comfortable.
- 5-Use three, four or five step delivery (four, preferably) and be certain to take stance in identical spot to insure perfect stride, timing and control.

That brings us to the starting position. With the 1-3 strike pocket on the right side of the pins, stance must naturally be to the right side of runway (approach), about 12 to 15 inches in from the gutter.

The shoulders should be squared away, eyes on the object—13 pins. Stride to the line must be in a straight line—no wavering—so that each ball will be started from exactly the same spot.

Cross Country Meet Slated Thursday At Uptown Stadium

Unbeaten K.H.S. Squad Engages Newburgh Free Academy Team; to Start 4:15 P. M.

Kingston High School's big cross country meet with Newburgh Free Academy has been moved ahead to Thursday afternoon instead of Friday as originally scheduled. G. Warren Kins announced today.

The big meet of the year will start at 4:15 o'clock at municipal stadium. The Maroon hill-and-dalers hold straight victories over Beacon and Monticello.

Odds Favor Middies In Important DUSO League Encounter

Maroons Get 'Big Drill' in Punting and Pass Defense for Port Jervis Contest Friday

Although local interest is focused on the coming football game Friday night between Kingston High and Port Jervis, there will be many a wide-eyed DUSO League follower anxious about the outcome of another very important league struggle Friday night when Middletown and Newburgh Free Academy mix it at Academy Field in the Hill City.

Both league teams came through with victories last week when Middletown humbled Kingston, 11 to 7, and Newburgh outlasted Port Jervis to win by 7-0. On the basis of games played so far this fall, Coach Ed Rodiek's straggling Middletown eleven will go into the all-important game as heavy favorites.

Although Newburgh is unbeaten in DUSO League circles, it has dropped a non-league game already to White Plains, but at the same time it holds wins over Pleasant of Schenectady and Port. Middletown has defeated Mt. Pleasant, Saunders Tech of Yonkers and Kingston.

According to the grapevine, critics believe Friday night's big game will decide the 1946 championship of the DUSO League. A win for Middletown would go a long way in determining the winner but anything is liable to happen with all clubs playing on a home and home basis this year.

Word comes from Newburgh that Coach Star Henningway wasn't at all too pleased with his Goldbacks after that slim 7-0 win over weak Port Jervis last Friday night. He has a big training schedule mapped out for the N.F.A. gridders this week and it's quite possible that Newburgh will be a different ball club come Friday night.

After watching Middletown there doesn't seem to be much in the way that Coach Rodiek can improve his team. With Charlie "Red" Murray and Herc Thornton forming a spectacular touchdown combination along the other top members of the Aludie eleven, Rodiek's eleven shapes up as the team to beat this year.

Maroons Hold Drills
Meanwhile, Coach Willard Burke is still putting his perplexed Kingston High gridders through long drills up at municipal stadium in preparation for Friday's second DUSO League tilt. The Kingston team, and Kingston fans, are anxiously awaiting a victory, and if all goes well, Friday should be the time for it.

Burke's main problem this week, he says is shaping up a better kicking department and improving the pass offense and defense. "We're awfully weak on pass defense," Burke admitted today "but we'll keep trying to build it up."

The Kingston eleven will seek its first victory since 1944 over Port Jervis in Friday night's arduous encounter. The Maroon won that year by 24 to 12.

There will be a lot of happy folk around this town if the score of that year can be repeated Friday.

Baldwin, U.C.L.A., Is Week's Top Lineman

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—A 196-pound, six-foot-one inch U.C.L.A. end who has brought raves from Pacific coast observers won first place today in this week's "lineman of the week" Associated Press poll.

He is Burr Baldwin, 24, of Bakersfield, Calif., who returned from the war to pick up his gridiron playing where he left off in 1942.

Against Stanford on Saturday he snared six passes from Ernie Case for 115 yards and was the middleman on two low-loup laterals, one good for a 35-yard touchdown play.

Other linemen praised this week include: Bill Swicki, Columbia. Hank Foldberg, Army. Guards—Joe Steffy, Army.

Van Herpe Hit 344

Buddy Van Herpe, former Kingston Recreation shortstop, who comes from Garrison, hit 344 in the North Atlantic Baseball League, according to official averages. Van Herpe collected 105 hits in 305 trips to the plate. He batted out five homers. Earl Woodward of Carbondale, paced the league with an average of .410.

Gas House Gang Spirit Revived as Cards Steal Series From Red Sox

Enos Slaughter's Speed, Brecheen's Relief Job Feature Game; Pesky Is 'Goat'

St. Louis, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Gas House Gang spirit still lives in the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals who have stolen the 1946 series from the favored Boston Red Sox on the sheer "hustle" of Enos Slaughter.

The score was tied at 3-3 in the eighth inning of yesterday's decisive seventh game and the full pressure of baseball's 16th million dollar series was riding heavy on every pitch when Harry Walker lined a base hit into left center, "Eno" who had singled to open the inning, catapulted off first base, rounded second and headed for third while Leon Culberson retrieved the ball and made a quick relay to shortstop Johnny Pesky.

A.F.L. Will Not Cooperate on Joint Policy With C.I.O.

Old Charge Is Repeated That C.I.O. Is Still Communist in Domination

Chicago, Oct. 16 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor convention turned thumbs down today on a proposal to join hands with its rival C.I.O. union organization in forming a joint foreign policy for American labor.

The idea, brought before the A.F.L. delegates at a resolution from A.F.L. Puerto Rican representatives, was shelved by the convention.

In so doing the A.F.L. acted consistently with a policy, enunciated in other resolutions, acting up on favorably, condemning Communism and accusing the C.I.O. of being Communist-dominated.

Part of today's convention session was dedicated to considering a comprehensive policy statement on Communism.

The convention also rejected a proposal that labor form its own political party, independent of either the Republicans or Democrats. Instead, the A.F.L. adopted a resolution favoring an active political campaign within the present two-party framework designed to bring about a "sweeping congressional house-cleaning."

Emanuel Baptists Invited to Use 'Y'

The Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. at the monthly meeting Tuesday evening invited the congregation of the Emanuel Baptist Church of 157 East Union street to hold religious services in the "Y" while the new church planned by the congregation is being built.

In September the Common Council approved placing the church property on East Union street in the industrial zone. At the public hearing on the petition of the church to change the zoning of the church property it was stated that the congregation had received an offer from the Cane Manufacturing Co., Inc., to purchase the church.

The Rev. Philip Saunders, pastor of the church, informed the aldermen that if the church's petition to amend the zoning ordinance was granted, that the Cane concern would buy the church property for manufacturing purposes, placing 100 men at work making pairs of shoes.

Week of Prayer
The week of November 10 to 16, has been designated as a worldwide Week of Prayer for the Y. M. C. A., and the local association will observe the week by holding prayer services each noon during the week in the lobby of the building. The services will be held each noon from 12:30 to 12:40 o'clock, and members of the local clergy will assist the board in arranging for the series of meetings.

No Cause Verdict Is Given in Real Estate Case

A verdict of no cause of action was returned Tuesday afternoon in the action brought by Sam N. Mann and N. B. Gross against Ora Cross and another for recovery of commission for sale of real estate. Plaintiffs alleged that they were entitled to $2,500 commission for sale of a Marletown farm which they had shown to the purchaser, who later bought the same property after being shown by another broker, Irving T. Speiser.

Plaintiffs sued in Supreme Court for recovery of the commission under a contract action. Cashin & Ewig appeared for plaintiffs and N. LeVan Haver for defendants.

Emperor Visits MacArthur

Tokyo, Oct. 16 (AP)—Emperor Hirohito visited General MacArthur today, without fanfare or prior announcement, at approximately the same time as General MacArthur's war leaders were being hanged at Nurnberg. In an hour's meeting, he thanked MacArthur for his assistance in preparing Japan's new constitution, which strips the Emperor of political power, and for the recent distribution of foodstuffs which materially have eased living conditions. Simultaneously, the four-power Allied Council for Japan was engaging in sharp debate as the British member criticized "American cordiality and confidence toward the present Japanese government."

County Legion to Hold Meeting at Wallkill

The regular monthly meeting of the Ulster County American Legion will be held at the High School Auditorium in Wallkill Tuesday, October 22 at 8 p. m. Commander Thomas Bohan urges that all delegates and every interested Legionnaire be present.

The special feature of the evening will be a speech by Gus Paulson, prominent Kingston Legionnaire, on his recent trip to Greece. Mr. Paulson promises to have a very interesting discussion on conditions both social and political in Greece as he saw them.

There will also be a discussion of the American Legion Oratorical Contest which is now being conducted in the high schools throughout the county under the direction of Donald G. Moore, county Americanism chairman and chairman of the oratorical contest.

Schedule Complete For Sessions of Night School Here

A schedule for classes has been worked out by Hubert Hoderath, director of Kingston night school, for the 245 registrants who enrolled for the sessions on Monday evening.

This evening at 7 o'clock the following classes will start sessions: Spanish, machine shop, auto mechanics, art, typing, shorthand, business law, bookkeeping, American history, elementary algebra with geometry and intermediate algebra being combined in one class. These three subjects were incorporated in one class because of the small number of registrants which made separate classes impossible.

Two subjects are continuing their high school work at the night school sessions. In order to allow a number of veterans to be accommodated, English classes will alternate with American history, English being taught on Monday evenings and American history on Wednesday evenings. This will allow veterans who desire to take both subjects the opportunity of attending both classes.

In the sewing classes it has been found impossible to accommodate the entire 90 who made application and only those who have registration numbers up to 709 will be accommodated at this time. Mr. Hoderath said today that efforts are being made to secure the services of another qualified teacher so that others registered for the sewing classes will be notified and the class started.

Classes in woodworking and electricity will begin on Monday, October 21.

The exact number of individual registrants for night school is not known at this time, Mr. Hoderath said, since many of those registered have signed up for more than one class.

Regular classes will be held on each Monday and Wednesday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock.

Czech Meets His Relatives in Times Square Life Drama

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—Drama was not confined to a Times Square movie theatre yesterday. Out front Arthur Gross-Polesnik, 46, a Czech who had spent years in a concentration camp and came here on a visitors permit to demonstrate an invention he claims rendered gasoline non-explosive was looking up at the bright lights when a man seized his arm.

He was Irving Gray, a brother-in-law who had thought him dead. They embraced and wept.

"If only Erika were alive too," Gross-Polesnik said, recalling his pretty blonde daughter whom he thought the Nazis killed in 1937. "She came to America with me six years ago," Gray exclaimed. "She's meeting me here."

Just then Erika, 19, came out of the crowd.

At the fadeout, amid tears and laughter, Erika explained to reporters she and her father would live together in Canada until he could reenter the country under a regular quota.

Predictions Vary On Available Meat

Pounds compared to 59 cents under O.P.A. Prices for live hogs rose to local all-time highs in Richmond, Va., and Omaha. In the Virginia city the price was $27 per hundred pounds compared with Monday's ceiling of $16.30, while in the latter city where the ceiling was $15.90, live hog prices were quoted at $27.50. Cattle prices, too, were at a new high in Omaha. The price: $30 per hundred pounds compared to the O.P.A. ceiling of $19.90.

There were some advanced prices in Salt Lake City but most shops adhered to previous ceilings while meat supplies were "still as short as ever" in St. Louis.

In Kansas City, most grocers had no meat. Major packers and meat suppliers promised no deliveries in less than 15 days.

Retail meat prices began a sharp general rise yesterday in most San Francisco Bay area butcher shops.

Butchers in Detroit reported little retail meat yesterday while the Chicago Sun said a "corps of market sampling shoppers found scarcely any meat at any prices. All sections of the city were covered."

Dealers in Cambridge, Mass., said promised meat would not reach New England in appreciable quantities until the end of next week and not in ample amounts until Thanksgiving.

Fitzpatrick Hits At Dewey: Woman Says Mead Distorts

Says Dewey Failed to Stop Meat Price Sabotage; Mead Statement Challenged

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—Paul E. Fitzpatrick state chairman, says Gov. Thomas E. Dewey failed, as titular head of the Republican party, to stop what he termed the sabotage of meat price control.

"Not once while the people were fighting reaction and greed in congress and out did Mr. Dewey say a word," he said in a statement yesterday. "It was his duty to say something to his sabotaging congressmen. He was, and is, the head of the Republican party by virtue of his touting by Roosevelt."

Fitzpatrick also charged Dewey with "ducking and dodging all issues," and asserted the governor had "surrendered his silent leadership" of his party to Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and B. Carroll Reece, Republican national chairman.

Meanwhile, Mary Donlon, chairman of the State Workmen's Compensation Board, said that U. S. Senator James M. Mead, Democratic, American Labor-Liberal party gubernatorial candidate, "has restored to glaring inaccuracies and distortions of truth" in attacking the agency she heads.

Meads Statement Labelled
Mead, in an address Monday at Elmira, charged that in Buffalo a compensation referee "had the amazing audacity to allow an attorney a $2,500 fee out of a total award amounting to $3,500" which the Compensation Board "reduced" to a few hundred dollars but still allowed the claimant to be mulcted by an exorbitant fee."

Miss Donlon said in a statement: "Whatever the source, the senator's facts were badly garbled. The attorney's fees were $1,000—not $2,500 as the senator said—for taking a complicated case twice to the Appellate Division and once to the Court of Appeals."

She said that a Red Cap in the Buffalo Railroad station who was hurt in 1933 "totally disabled for life—has already been paid, not $3,500 as the senator said, but $9,000. Moreover, he is receiving and will receive for the rest of his life a check every two weeks for $27 of Workmen's Compensation benefits."

Petroleum Dealers Hear Colonel Gray

Intendent Charles H. Sells of the State Highway Department for the speed in which he is conducting the road construction program.

Colonel Gray also commended State Highways Superintendent Sells for his program of new highways, which he said was the most forward looking highway system in the world.

In reviewing the work of the state committee at Albany, Colonel Gray said a careful watch was kept on legislation, which might affect the welfare of the petroleum industry. He also stated that the committee would continue to fight for the elimination of emergency taxes on gasoline and lubricating oil.

In conclusion, he urged the dealers to support their local organization which was fighting for the protection of the industry.

In his demonstration of the power of gasoline, Mr. Vogel used four drops of gasoline to produce a blast, which was very impressive. The need for caution in handling gasoline was further demonstrated in experiments showing the danger from gas fumes. The use of gasoline for cleaning purposes in the home was deplored by the speaker, who cited factual information on the subject.

Zelickman Car Taken, Involved in Smash-up

Mrs. Alice Zelickman of 96 Broadway was surprised early this morning when the Kingston Police Department checked with her regarding an accident at Esopus in which her Pontiac coupe was involved.

According to the findings in the investigation, Mrs. Zelickman said she parked the car in the rear of her home at 11 o'clock last night and was unaware that it had been moved.

The check on the local auto started when Corporal William Martin of the State Police phoned the Kingston department with information that a 1937 Pontiac coupe with a Kingston license had been in collision with a truck at Esopus.

Corporal Martin told the local police after the smash-up the driver of the coupe ran into the woods near the highway, and disappeared.

A tri-county committee to promote state legislation favorable to its interests was discussed at the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association meeting in Woodstock on Tuesday evening.

It was proposed to have the board of directors from the organizations in Ulster, Rockland and Orange counties serve on the committee to study legislation affecting them and make recommendations.

Interest in the proposition ran high at the session held in the Town Hall with firemen from all sections of Ulster county present to enjoy the hospitality of the Woodstock company as hosts. Refreshments were served and movies shown.

Mr. Rochford said the Seal Sale in each community would be directed by a local committee working in cooperation with the county committee. Funds raised from the sale of Seals will be used to support the 1947 tuberculosis control program of Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association. The county-wide campaign will coincide with the nation-wide 40th annual Seal Sale which will extend from November 25 to December 25.

Chairmen of the local committees are: Mrs. A. Loren LeFevre, town of Esopus; Mrs. Orson S. Haynes, town of Hardenburgh; Mrs. Claude Palen, town of Hurley; Mrs. Glenn Clarke, town of Marlborough; Mrs. Raymond Morris, town of New Paltz; Miss Edna Longyear, town of Olive; Mrs. Andrew J. Snyder, town of Rosendale; Mrs. Fabian L. Russell, town of Saugerties; Mrs. W. H. Cruickshank, town of Shandaken; Mrs. L. C. Edsall, town of Shawangunk; Mrs. Dorothy Hoemer, town of Wawarsing; Mrs. Marion Bullard, town of Woodstock; Mrs. William Treadway, town of Rochester; Mrs. LeGrand Haviland, Jr., town of Lloyd; Miss Mary C. Dickerman, town of Marlborough; and Mrs. William Hooker, town of Ulster.

Expressing appreciation to the chairmen for consenting to serve, Mr. Rochford said that progress in the control of tuberculosis in Ulster county depended upon the willingness of each community to accept its share of responsibility in supporting work of the association.

"Tuberculosis last year killed 21 people in Ulster county," he said. "If we are to reduce the death rate and prevent further spread of the disease we must expand the activities of the association. These activities last year included health education, movies, etc., in tuberculosis, syphilis, nutrition, and dental health; nursing and professional help at chest clinics; and free chest X-rays.

The transferral of Max Jacobson's clothing store from 32 Broadway to the former Barbizon location on John street, Kingston, brings to the uptown business section a men's clothing store that has done Jacobson, better known as "Ike" Jacobson, last week moved into the elaborately furnished store at 39 John street, and the opening day volume of sales set an all-time record for the company. Featuring some of the best lines of men's suits available, the Jacobson store has everything to completely outfit the discriminating gentleman.

Hundreds of well wishers attended the opening of the new store and Mr. Jacobson said the public response to his line of merchandise exceeded his most optimistic expectations. Jacobsons' were located at 32 Broadway for nearly 25 years before moving uptown.

Moe Rates With Joe
Detroit, Oct. 16 (AP)—To the wonderment of science, Moe was doing just as well as Joe though it wasn't planned that way. Moe and Joe, two rats, are the principals in a Red Cross dieticians' exhibition. Moe, despite a deficient diet, gained weight, ounce for ounce, with Joe. Then the secret came out. A young girl worker who "felt sorry" for Moe had been slipping choice bits into his cage.
President John Adams used to drink a quart tankard of hard cider before breakfast.
